

Monika Borgers

---

Monika is a Partner with Ellis & Partners Executive Search, a member firm of Agilium Worldwide, where she introduced and is responsible for the Academia Practice. Apart from her focus on institutions of higher learning, she regularly covers executive and business positions with an international scope for sectors such as Retail and Distribution, Professional Services, and Life Sciences.

Prior to joining the firm in 2014, Monika was with IESE Business School for 10 years, where she held different executive positions, including Program Director for national and international custom and open enrollment programs, and Director for International Communications. Her last position at IESE Business School was that of Alumni Director, servicing a community of 45,000 alumni worldwide.

Monika has a passion for helping executives and talented professionals defining their own individual career path. She provides useful tools and assists in drafting concrete action plans to achieve goals.

Monika holds an BA in Philosophy from the University of Dallas, and an MBA from IESE Business School. She has lived and worked in three countries and is able to provide service in German, English, and Spanish.

More information: <https://es.linkedin.com/in/monikaborgers>