

Myriam Camps Sánchez

Myriam is Executive Coach, accredited PCC by ICF (International Coach Federation). Degree in Psychology by the UC, Madrid. Master in Organizational Behavior at the University of Berkeley (California, USA). Master in Human Resources at ICADE and PDD at IESE Business School.

As a Coach she was trained as Executive Coach by the Escuela Europea de Coaching. Systemic Coach by the Metasysteme Coaching School. Team Coach by Lider-haz-GO/ISAVIA. Behavioural Coach by the Behavioural Coaching Institute, USA. Continuous training by The Coaching Space Ltd., UK.

More than 25 years of management professional experience within multinational from different sectors:

- Madrid Business School (Postgraduate Business School): Placement Center Manager.
- HAY Selección (HR Consulting and Head Hunting Firm; part of HAY Group): Senior Consultant and Project Manager.
- Sun Microsystems (TIC): Human Resources Manager.
- GlaxoSmithKline (Pharmaceutical and FMCG): HR Director on Selection, Training and Talent Management.
- GlaxoSmithKline Consumer Healthcare (GSK Consumer Business): HR Business Head, Member of the Spain & Portugal Management Team and HR EMEA Team.

Since 2012 she develops her professional life as Executive Coach for individuals, teams and organizations and HR Consultant in a variety of large projects related with Talent Management, Career Planning & Development, Leadership, Diversity, Management Audit, Change Management, Personal Branding, Development Centers, etc., within a variety of worldwide multinationals and pymes. Sectors involved: Pharmaceutical, Banking, FMCG, Telco, IT, Energy, Industrial, Distribution, Textile, Real-Estate, among others.

Member of IESE Coaching Team, leads coaching processes to participants from the five continents. Permanent collaboration with prestigious and well-known Consulting Firms. She also leads a training program: “Coaching de Equipos y Resiliencia Organizacional” at Integrando Excelencia, (Universidad Villanueva de Madrid). Member of the Spanish ICF Competences Committee.

Finally, she works with non for non-for-profit organizations on childhood development projects and adults social-labour reintegration.